LOCAL MATTERS.

Subscribers who fail to receive the Gazette regularly will please report promptly at this office.

no race tomorrow at 4:43 a. m. and 4:53 p. m. High water at 4:29 a. m. and 4:53 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section, local showers tonight and tomorrow morning; fair Saturday afternoon; cooler late tonight and Saturday; fresh to brisk southerly, shifting to northwesterly winds and possibly squalls.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Harry Caton, son of Mr. James R. Caton, has returned to his home from the University of Virginia, where he is studying law.

Mr. Hamilton P. Howard left last night for a month's stay in the mountains. A pretty home wedding was celebrated yesterday afternoon at the Georgetown residence of Captain Geo. Washington Ball, when his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Carter Ball, and Dr. Giles Cook Lane, of North Carolina, were married in the presence of a small family party.

Mr. Walter C. Sampson, of this city, and Miss Minnie Cross, of Upperville, were married at the Baptist Church, Manassas, on Wednesday evening, the Rev. Dr. Trainum officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Sampson arrived here at 9 o'clock that night, and were tendered a reception at the residence of the groom's mother, 1221 Prince street, where they will hereafter reside.

Miss Frances Grimsley, of Culpeper, is visiting Mrs. George Drewry. Mrs. Henry Strauss and her granddaughter, Miss Hortense Leterman (who has been attending school in this city), left today for Charlottesville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Louis Looze will leave here Saturday for a three-months' trip through France and northern Europe.

Mr. James Wadd will leave this city tonight for Selma, Ala., where he has secured a position in the employ of the Southern Railway Company.

Justice R. A. Sinclair is on a visit to his old home in Prince William county.

Mr. B. Baer, of this city, is quite sick at his former home in Georgetown.

Mr. Arthur Violette and Miss Kate Howard, both of Montgomery county, Md., were married in this city yesterday evening by Rev. E. V. Kestner. Market Master L. B. Lyles was taken suddenly ill while on duty at the market today and had to be taken to the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Andrew Sullivan, near by, where he rapidly improved.

SCHOOL BOARD.—At the monthly meeting of the City School Board, held last night, there were present Messrs. Thompson, Altheimer, Mankin, Marbury, Kaus, Carre, Harrison and Swenson. In the absence of the chairman Mr. Marbury presided.

Mr. J. D. Normoy, recently elected by the City Council to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Geo. Darley, also appeared and took his seat and was appointed a member of the finance committee.

Several bills for supplies and repairs were ordered to be paid.

At the suggestion of the Superintendent the days for closing the schools for the session were fixed as follows: Washington on June 18, Lee on the 19th, Snowden on the 20th and Halliwell on the 21st.

The clerk was directed to draw his warrant for $5 in favor of James McDevitt, of Washington, to reimburse him for the amount expended in recovering a copy of Webster's dictionary stolen from Washington school building some time since.

The following tribute, agreed upon by a committee of the City School Board appointed at the May meeting, will be entered upon the minutes and a copy transmitted to the family of the deceased:

The providence of God having taken hence George Darley, a school trustee from the Second ward, the City School Board resolves to enter upon its records and transmit to the family of the deceased in appreciation of the sincerity, faithfulness and efficiency of its departed member. He was religious, without bigotry; manly, without pretense; and faithful, without affectation. His associates sorrow with the widow and the orphan and bow to the decree of Him who doeth all things well.

PAID THE FINE.—James L. Carroll, the picture man arrested yesterday, paid the Mayor his fine this morning after a consultation with his manager who came over from Baltimore last night. It is understood that anxiety to have the Mayor's decision appealed from brought out sundry persuasions, but the manager concluded that his acquaintance with self-constituted lawyers was hardly sufficiently intimate to justify taking advice. There is no let up in the Mayor's efforts to arrest violators of the revenue laws and additional instructions were given the officers today and these instructions will be followed up by special details of officers for this special work. Appeals and threats of appeals are not bothering the Mayor.

PROMISED TO LEAVE.—A house on lower Queen street was reported to the Mayor this morning by the agent of the owner as a disorderly place. The parties occupying the premises were immediately arrested by Officer Beach and on their promise to leave today, the case was dismissed. This house, it appears, was in the neighborhood of the homes of an officer and of a member of the police force and they informed the agent of the house but failed to make complaint with the Mayor and the Mayor only knew of it through the statement of the agent, whereupon the trouble was removed.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor George L. Simpson presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning: Malachi Thomas, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed. A man charged with being drunk and disorderly was fined $5.

Ernest Hall, charged with assaulting and beating Maggie Grove, was fined $5.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and warm. Three prisoners and two lodgers were at the station house.

TO BE HEARD IN VACATION.—In the Circuit Court for the county last week the case of the Commercial National Bank of Chicago vs. Consumers Brewing Co., an action for injunction and appointment of receiver, by consent of counsel was set for argument in vacation at Manassas, on Saturday.

The case of Crosby & Lieb vs. Chas. A. Hinesman was continued by consent, to be heard in vacation at Manassas, July 3rd. This is the case brought by Crosby & Lieb on behalf of the Washington Railway Syndicate to enforce the contract for the purchase of the W. & A. F. C. electric railway.

In the case of Falls Church vs. W. & A. F. C. Ry., a decree was entered dismissing the case at the cost of the defendant railway company. This case was an action brought by the town of Falls Church to compel the railway company to fulfill the contract in reference to grading First street in Falls Church, blanking crossings, etc. The company having complied with the decree of the court to the satisfaction of the plaintiff, the case was dismissed.

PLEASANT EXCURSION.—The Weems Steamboat Company are offering very pleasant salt water excursion to all who appreciate the benefits of such trips. Their new steamers, the Northumberland and Potomac, are luxuriously fitted up in modern style and they leave here twice a week for Baltimore and river landings. The company has made arrangements with the railroads centering here, so that persons living on the lines of those roads can have the benefit of a rail and salt water excursion.

THE ALEXANDRIA SHOE COMPANY. The statement in yesterday's Gazette that members of the Kretol Chemical Company had bought out the Alexandria Shoe Company and will hereafter operate and greatly improve that plant was misleading. The two companies are distinct organizations, while both are placing steam and electric power and improved machinery to facilitate the increasing demand for the products produced by each company.

THE RIDDICK CASE.

The argument in the case of Rev. J. E. Riddick, indicted for the murder of Dr. Temple, was opened yesterday at Lawrenceville. It is conceded that the prosecution won a victory in securing the instructions favorable to that side.

These practically leave the whole matter of the sanity of the prisoner to be determined by the jury.

Mr. E. W. Saunders, the speaker of the Virginia House of Delegates, opened for the Commonwealth. Mr. Saunders asserted that the hypothetical question upon which the testimony of Dr. Hodges, Drewry and Coroner Taylor was based did not cover the case of Riddick, arguing that the "divine commission" clause was not worthy of credence.

He contended that no evidence had been produced to substantiate the claim that the prisoner had attempted to commit suicide. He said that such trivialities had been introduced and might be regarded in any other narrow, bigoted and prejudiced mind.

Mr. Saunders was followed by Col. Meade Haskins for the defense. This attorney for the prisoner made an earnest appeal for his acquittal, based upon the plea of insanity.

FOUGHT OVER AN ACTRESS.—A duel between Gabrielle D'Annunzio, the novelist, and Eurnabel, editor of El Nacione, resulted in the wounding of the newspaper man.

The duel was occasioned by the editor insisting that D'Annunzio had persuaded Mme. Duse, the Italian actress, to tell him the story of her childhood disgrace that he might use it in a novel, despite the fact that the novelist had absolutely denied the story. D'Annunzio has two more duels to fight for the same cause.
